

Click to Download Data Button Isn't Working

If your Click to Download Data button isn't allowing you to download GIS data, then your browser might have some stored cookies for the website.

The Florida Geographic Data Library (FGDL) Geospatial Data Clearinghouse Node

AMERICAN INDIAN LANDS AND NATIVE ENTITIES IN FLORIDA - 2017

FILENAME: AMINDIANLANDS_NOV17

Metadata:

- Identification Information
- Data Quality Information
- Spatial Data Organization Information
- Spatial Reference Information
- Entity and Attribute Information
- Distribution Information
- Metadata Reference Information

Identification Information:

Citation:

Citation_Information:

Originator: University of Florida GeoPlan Center
Publication_Date: 20171103
Title: AMERICAN INDIAN LANDS AND NATIVE ENTITIES IN FLORIDA - 2017
Geospatial_Data_Presentation_Form: vector digital data
Publication_Information:

Publication_Place: Gainesville, FL
Publisher: University of Florida GeoPlan Center

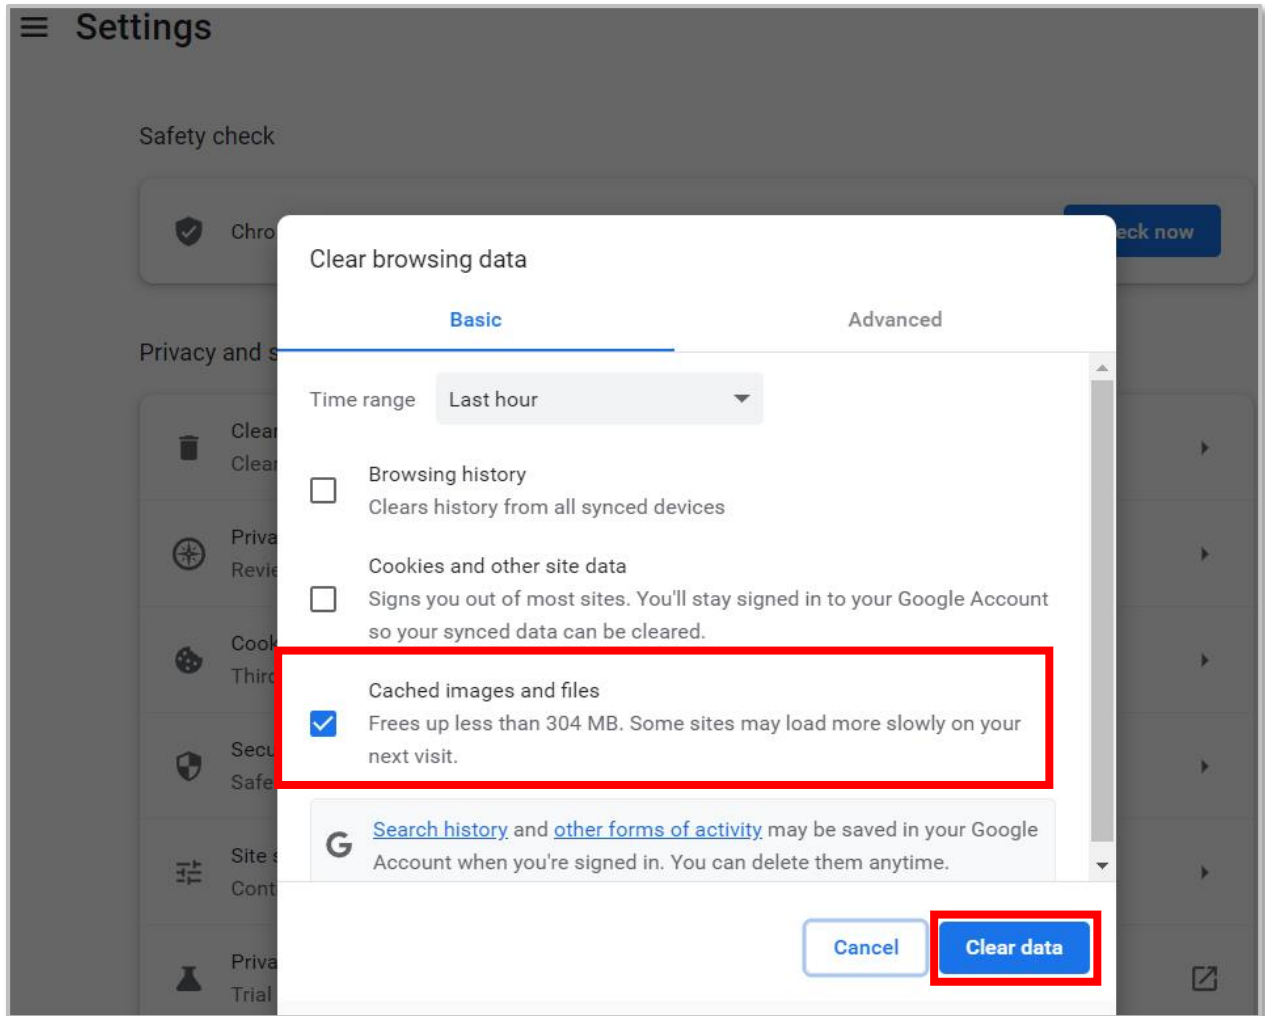

Other_Citation_Details:
State of Florida
Online_Linkage: www.fgdl.org

Navigation menu:

- FGDL Home
- Search FGDL
- Click to Download Data
- FGDL FTP Archive
- Contact FGDL

Chrome Example: <https://web.geoplan.ufl.edu/pub/agol/metadata/xml/amindianlands.xml>

To clear the old cookies, simply try: ctrl + shift + delete, this will launch the following webpage.

Example: `chrome://settings/clearBrowserData`

Select only the option labeled, Cached images and files, then Click Clear data.